

Did anything surprise you in this retelling of the story?

What else do you know by the same author?

How did you know...?(eg the wolf would be bad?)

How was...(animal) rather like a human in the story?

What characters were in the story that we find in traditional tales?

How was the information in the text different from the picture?

How was the video version of the story different from the book?

What features did you find that told you this was a...text?